

Sigurður Baldursson

CURRICULUM VITAE

About

In short, I am motivated, organized and passionate about what I do. Communication is one of my strong suits since my education and background is international. I am an empathetic digital designer whose career is driven by a need for creative thinking and inventiveness. The areas that I focus on are UI/UX, Web Design, and Branding. I believe that the key to a thriving business is - quality work, and going beyond the customer's expectations. I am fluent in Icelandic and English, I also speak Danish quite well and a little French.
